Understanding the Interface

The screenshot shows the Brightspace Office Hours interface. At the top, there is a header bar with a title "Office Hours" and a status indicator (green dot). To the right of the title are icons for a question mark and a settings gear, with a red arrow pointing to the settings gear. Below the header, the interface is divided into several sections. On the left, there is a sidebar with icons for participants, chat, and webcams. A callout box titled "EXPAND SECTIONS" points to these icons, stating: "Click icons to expand sections for participants list with access to chat and shared webcams". In the center, there is a large whiteboard area. A callout box titled "PRESENTER CONTENT" points to this area, stating: "Presenter's whiteboard content and desktop sharing appears here". Below the whiteboard, there is a toolbar with icons for actions, mute, leave audio, share webcam, share desktop, enable drawing, and status. A callout box titled "MANAGE YOUR PARTICIPATION" points to this toolbar, stating: "Use these buttons to control your connections to the session". On the right side of the interface, there is a settings panel. A callout box titled "OPEN SETTINGS" points to the settings gear icon in the header, stating: "Click to access settings including captioning and user controls".

Whiteboard

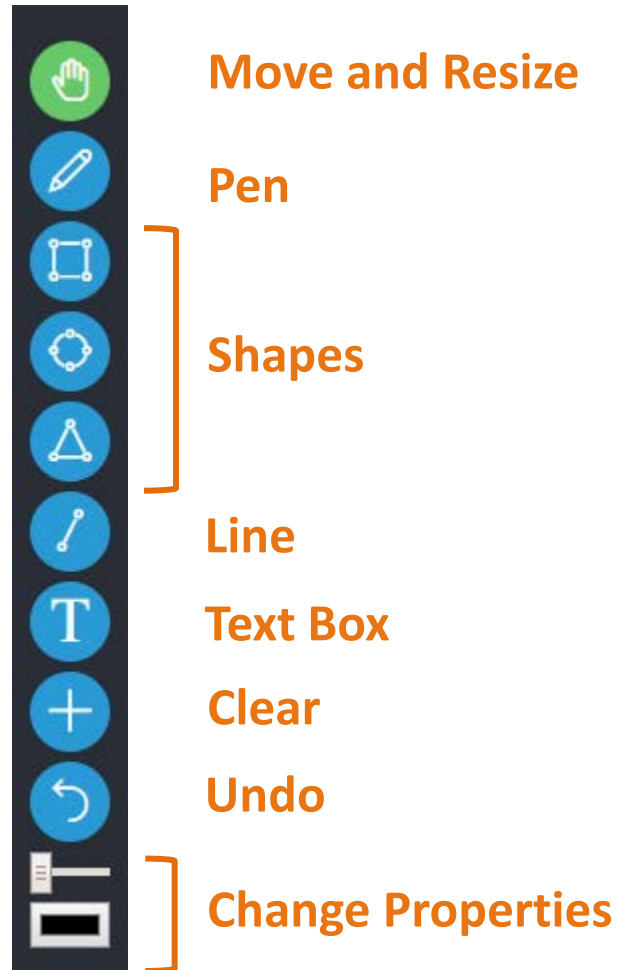

The screenshot displays a virtual classroom interface. At the top, there is a header bar with a user icon, a chat icon, and a video icon on the left, and the text "Office Hours" with a status indicator in the center. On the right of the header bar, there is a green status dot, a question mark icon, and a three-dot menu icon. The main area is a large whiteboard. At the bottom of the whiteboard, there is a red oval highlighting a URL: "Tutorials/Tutoriales/Anleitungen/الدروس/Tutorials/ Tutoriels www.youseeu.com/virtualclassroom". Below the whiteboard, there is a navigation bar with a "<" button, a ">" button, and a "Slide 1" dropdown menu. At the bottom of the interface, there is a toolbar with seven icons: a plus sign in a blue circle labeled "Actions", a microphone in a blue circle labeled "Mute", a speaker with a red 'x' in a red circle labeled "Leave audio", a video camera in a blue circle labeled "Share webcam", a computer monitor in a blue circle labeled "Share desktop", a pencil in a blue circle labeled "Enable drawing", and a hand in a blue circle labeled "Status".

Please note: This session is being recorded.

Virtual Classrooms

Tips and Takeaways

Preparing:

– Content:

- Use visuals whenever possible, especially for complex processes or procedures
- Background templates should be simple and avoid gradient colors on the background
- Load presentations in PDF format to preserve formatting

– Support during Session:

- Identify a participant to be the “Voice of the Chat” and another to be the “Producer”

Virtual Classrooms

Tips and Takeaways

Kickoff Session on the Right Foot:

- Welcome the participants
- Recordings
 - Tell Participants before beginning the recording
 - Include a “Session is being recorded” footnote on slides
- For the first session
 - Do a quick introduction to the system and point out items participants will need to know
 - (chat, raise hand, step away, polling, etc.)
- Identify how participants should ask questions

Virtual Classrooms

Tips and Takeaways

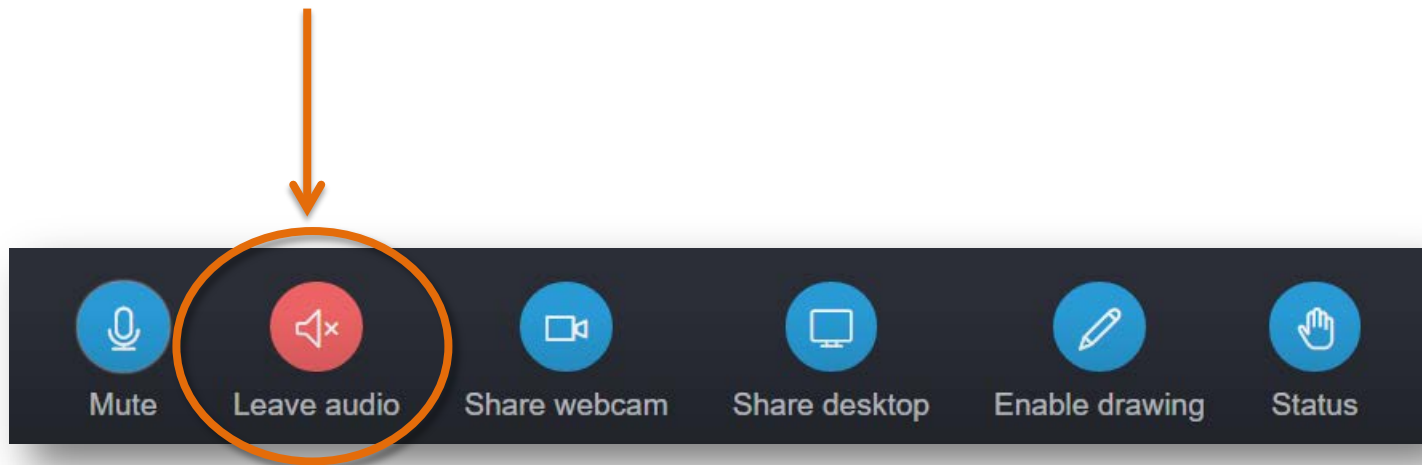

Throughout the session:

- Use Polling Tool to engage your audience
- Use the Whiteboard Pointer to point to items on your content
- Ask questions which provide opportunity for interaction
- Scan the entire screen – watching for indicators that participants are having trouble

Troubleshoot Audio Problems

Leave audio and rejoin

Virtual Classrooms Tips and Takeaways

At the end:

- Stop the recording
- Make sure everyone has exited, remember you can “Kick” users out

Effective Practices

- Create a link to virtual classrooms and video assignments inside of a module or sub module
- Include text and video instructions to explain the assignment activity for your Video Assignments
- Associate video assignments with Grade items
