

View Test Results and Feedback When Test Availability Date Has Past

These instructions explain how to view test results and feedback when the test availability date has past.

1. Login to Blackboard using your email username and password.
2. Get into the course.
3. Go to My Grades (this can be found in the Tools area if the professor does not have a link to it on the course menu).
4. Click on the link for the exam you want to see the results/feedback for.
5. On the next page showing the exam attempts, click on the Calculated Grade (click on the score). This should open a webpage showing the results and feedback.
